der The NOVEMBER 21, 1964

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

SUMNER AHLBUM DIES;

Summer Ahlbum, 50, an active member, died Nov. 12 at his home in New York City. He was vice president for Public! Information for Radio Free Europe.

Before taking on this post in 1963, all bum was vice president of Manning Public Relations for several years. A lewspaper veteran, he was Executive Picture Editor of the Providence (R.I.) ournal Bulletin in the early 1940's. Helso served as News Editor of the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

An alumnus of Brown University, in Ahlbum was also Lt. Commander in the Naval Reserve. He served in Naval Air. Combat Intelligence during World War 11. He was a native of Leonia, N. J.

He is survived by his wife, Joanne, and a son, Sumner Joseph, aged 5. Two children by a former marriage are Mrs. Noel. A. MacInnis and Jonathan.

Butial was at Stony Brook, Lee L.